

Name: Shimwaayi Muntemba, (F)
Citizen of: Zambia
Areas of experience: Gender, Rural development, Environment and development, Institutional development, HIV and AIDS, Participation

International Experience:

Academic pursuit: B.A. University of Nottingham, UK
M.A. University of Zambia, Zambia
PhD University of California at Los Angeles

Lived and worked: The World Bank, Washington DC (Africa Region)
Commonwealth Secretariat, London (Global)
Earthcare Africa Monitoring Institute, Kenya (Africa Region)
Environment Liaison Centre International, Kenya (Global)
World Commission on Environment & Development, Geneva, (Global)
International Labour Office, Geneva (Africa and Asia)
University of Zambia (Zambia)

Other: Served on many international boards and committees
Co-founder, Fund for Orphans of AIDS in Africa
Member, Association of African women in research and development

Management: World Bank program, Action research on Micro finance institutions in Africa, Washington DC
World Bank, Africa Region, HIV and AIDS in Africa
Director General, EarthCare Africa Monitoring Institute
Executive Director, Environment Liaison Centre International, serving environment and development NGOs, globally
Program Coordinator, WCED, Agriculture, forestry & environment
Project Manager, ILO, Rural women's employment in Africa and Asia
Department Head, University of Zambia

Technical: Acquired much experience in human resource development, gender integration in policy, programs & projects, social mobilization, action research

Action: Founder, Zambia Orphans AID, Washington DC, 2000; Zambia 2003; UK 2006
Instrumental in creation of the St. Peter Claver Society for African orphans, St. John Catholic Church, McLean, Virginia
Co-founder, Fund for Orphans of AIDS in Africa, Washington DC
Founder, Earthcare Africa Monitoring Institute, Kenya
Co-founder, Zambia Women's Association

Writing & publications: published many articles, authored/co-authored & edited books, produced papers to deliver at conferences and seminar; currently working on two books: Girls' education in Zambia; and HIV & AIDS, an African woman's story